

Connolly Association

Campaigning for an independent and united Ireland

AFFILIATE TO THE CONNOLLY ASSOCIATION

The Connolly Association is the longest running organisation of the Irish in Britain – established over 75 years ago. Its aims were to work for the complete freedom of the Irish people; and provide social and cultural centre for the promotion of the teachings of James Connolly, and to show solidarity with oppressed nations and peoples throughout the world - sentiments which continue in the present constitution of the Association.

Our work focuses on building popular support in Britain for an independent and united Ireland, with a particular emphasis on the Trade Union movement and other democrats. The Association is supportive of the Good Friday Agreement as a step towards Irish Unity.

All affiliates will be kept informed of our activities and encouraged to participate.
